THE JUDICIAL BRANCH
STATE OF CONNECTICUT

Do It Yourself
DIVORCE GUIDE SUPPLEMENT

(To be used with the Do It Yourself Divorce Guide)

Disclaimer: This booklet was written by the Connecticut Judicial Branch as a public service. It is based on the Connecticut General Statutes and Connecticut Practice Book in effect at the time of publication. This booklet is not intended to take the place of legal advice from a Connecticut attorney. You are solely responsible for any actions you take on your own behalf. Court staff may assist you with procedural questions; however, court staff cannot act as your attorney or give you legal advice. The Judicial Branch is not responsible for any errors or omissions in these instructions.

HOW TO USE THE DIVORCE GUIDE SUPPLEMENT

This Supplement contains two copies of the Financial Affidavit form and one copy of the most commonly used court forms you will need to start a divorce case in Connecticut. This Supplement is designed to be used with the Do It Yourself Divorce Guide (JDP-FM-179) to help you represent yourself in a divorce. Please read the Do It Yourself Divorce Guide before you fill out any of these forms.

Make sure you are using the current version of the form

Court forms are sometimes updated because the laws change or the courts improve the way cases are processed. The form revision date is listed next to the form number, under the form title in the upper left hand corner of the form. You can tell whether the forms included here are still up-to-date by comparing them with the versions of the forms that are available on the Judicial Branch website at www.jud.ct.gov. If you are in doubt, check with the court clerk's office at your local courthouse. A list of all courthouses that handle divorce cases and the clerk's office telephone number can be found in the Do It Yourself Divorce Guide.

All of the court forms in this Supplement are 8 1/2" x 11" and are printed in black ink on white paper to make it easier to print them and distribute them to you. Do not be confused or concerned if you see the same form available on colored paper or with colored ink at the courthouse. The forms in this Supplement are valid and the court clerks' offices will accept them throughout the State of Connecticut.

Complete the forms in this Supplement

The forms in this Supplement are listed in alphabetical order. Select the forms you need for your case after reading the Do It Yourself Divorce Guide. Then tear out the forms. Please read the instructions on the forms and the section that discusses the forms in the Do It Yourself Divorce Guide first, before you fill out any form. In most cases, the forms ask you to put information into the blank or box, or to check off the correct answer for your situation.

You may complete these court forms by printing the information in ink, by typing the information, or by using the fillable forms on the Judicial Branch website at www.jud.ct.gov. You may obtain additional copies of these forms and other court forms at all Judicial District clerks' offices, Public Information Desks, or Court Service Centers. A list of clerks' offices and telephone numbers can be found in the Do It Yourself Divorce Guide. Remember, the clerk's office can give you information about court procedures, but it cannot give you legal advice.

Summary Of Automatic Court Orders

The court orders on page 1 of this form apply to both parties in this case, unless there is already a court order which is different than one of these orders. The automatic court orders apply to the plaintiff or the applicant when the attached Complaint or Application is signed. They apply to the defendant or respondent when a copy of the Complaint or Application, and the Notice of Automatic Court Orders are served (delivered to the defendant/respondent by an authorized person). The automatic court orders are summarized below, but you must follow the actual orders on page 1 of this form. If you do not understand the actual automatic court orders, you may want to talk to an attorney.

In all cases that involve a child, whether or not the parties are married or in a civil union:

- Neither party may permanently take the child(ren) from Connecticut without written agreement or a court order;
- If you move out of the family home, you must tell the other party in writing within 48 hours about your new address or a place where you can receive mail;
- If both parents of the child(ren) live apart, both parties must help the child(ren) continue usual contact with both parents in person, by telephone and in writing;
- Neither party may take the child(ren) off any existing medical, hospital, doctor, or dental insurance policy or let any such insurance policy end;
- Both parties must participate in a parenting education program within 60 days of the return date of the complaint or within 60 days from the filing of the application for custody or visitation;
- None of these orders change or replace any court order that already exists.

In all cases that involve a marriage or civil union, whether or not there are children, neither party may:

- Sell, exchange, take away, give away or dispose of any property without written agreement with the other party or a court order except in their usual business or for usual expenses for the home or for reasonable attorney's fees for this case;
- Hide any property;
- Mortgage any property except in their usual business or for usual expenses for the house or for reasonable attorney's fees for this case without written agreement or a court order;
- Have any asset or an asset that is owned by both parties become owned only by him or her without written agreement or a court order;
- Go into unreasonable debt by borrowing money or using credit cards or cash advances unreasonably;
- Take the other off any existing medical, hospital, doctor or dental insurance policy or let any such insurance coverage end;
- Change the terms or named beneficiaries of any existing insurance policy or let any existing insurance coverage end, including life, automobile, homeowner's or renter's insurance;
- Deny use of the family home to the other person without a court order, if you are living together on the date the court papers are delivered.

In all cases:

- Both parties must complete and give to each other sworn financial affidavits within 30 days of the return date;
- Both parties must attend a case management conference on the date given on page 1 of this form, unless you both agree on all issues and file a Case Management Agreement form with the court clerk on or before that date.

If you do not obey these orders while your case is pending, you may be punished by being held in contempt of court. If you object to these orders or want them changed, you have a right to a hearing before a judge within a reasonable time, by filing a motion to modify these orders with the court clerk.
