

The Connecticut Supreme Court Historical Society, in conjunction with the Connecticut Supreme Court, will mark Law Day 2017 on Wednesday, May 3, with a celebration of the 14th Amendment.

The ceremony will start at 10 a.m. in the Supreme Court Courtroom, located at 231 Capitol Ave., Hartford. It will feature high school winners of an art and poetry contest based on this year's theme, The 14th Amendment: Transforming American Democracy.

The winners are from four high schools: Journalism & Media Academy, Hartford; Metropolitan Learning Center, Bloomfield; Hall High, West Hartford; and Hartford Public High Law & Government.

There also will be a ceremony in the lobby to unveil a model of the State Library and Supreme Court Building, in honor of retired Justice Peter T. Zarella. For further information, please contact the External Affairs Division at 860-757-2270.
