

UPDATED NOTICE REGARDING DECISIONS
ON MOTIONS FOR EXTENSION OF TIME*
EFFECTIVE DECEMBER 1, 2016

Beginning December 1, 2016, the official notice for orders on motions for extension of time issued by the Supreme Court and Appellate Court will be the electronic posting of the order to the case activity section of the case information screen in appellate e-filing.

Paper notice will no longer be issued after November 30, 2016, unless: (1) a party is exempt from electronic filing, pursuant to Practice Book Section 60-8; (2) case information is not electronically available through appellate e-filing; and (3) the order on the motion for extension of time contains additional text that cannot be viewed in the case activity section of the case information screen.

*Updated to reflect change in electronic posting process to include appeals with non-exempt self-represented parties.
