

Superior Court Family Support Magistrate Division

Standing Order Regarding Matters in which the Attorney General is Counsel for the State of Connecticut in Video Conference Docket.

Effective January 13, 2010:

In all video conference proceedings for matters in which the Attorney General has entered an appearance on behalf of the state of Connecticut, where a motion to modify support pursuant to Conn. Gen. Stat. §46b-215e brought by or on behalf of an incarcerated or institutionalized obligor is pending, the Assistant Attorney General need not physically appear and may file a written claim of objection provided it has been filed in advance of the hearing on the motion.

The Honorable Lynda B. Munro
Chief Administrative Judge
Family Division
