

Agenda
Ebriefs Transition and Development Committee
Tuesday, January 8, 2019, 2:30-3:30
Attorney Conference Room, 2nd Floor
231 Capitol Avenue, Supreme Court Building,
Hartford, Connecticut

Co-Chairs: Honorable Gregory T. D'Auria, Supreme Court Justice
Honorable Ingrid L. Moll, Appellate Court Judge

I. Open Meeting

II. Introductions of Committee Members

III. Charge

The charge of the committee, as directed by Chief Justice Robinson, is to transition the Appellate Division from its current procedure of requiring the filing of paper and electronic briefs to filing only electronic briefs. The overarching goal is to increase the functionality and readability of appellate briefs thereby improving appellate practice for both the bench and counsel of record in matters before the Supreme Court and Appellate Court.

IV. The User Experience – Pros and Cons

V. Video Presentation by ITD of the Concept and Functionality of Electronic Briefs

VI. Financial Impact-- Costs and Savings

VII. Hyperlinks

- a. Capability, Feasibility and ITD support
- b. Visual Images
- c. Benefits and Concerns

VIII. Next Meeting

Future Discussion Items

- I. Exemptions, Self-represented Incarcerated Petitioners and Defendants
- II. Rule Changes
- III. Transition and Implementation Period
- IV. Training and Education Seminars
- V. Operational Impact
- VI. Next Steps
- VII. Other Business