

The Judicial Branch is committed to providing you with the best resources it can, especially during the COVID-19 pandemic.

One of the most effective ways to obtain information is by accessing our website, www.jud.ct.gov, which provides information about the following:

COVID-19 Related Questions

Traffic Tickets

Filings and Payments

General Help

Court Procedure

Probation, Bail, Family Services and Juvenile Residential Services

FAQs

Case Look-up

Child Support Enforcement Services

Office of Victim Services

For more information, please visit the Judicial Branch website at: www.jud.ct.gov.

Accessing Judicial Branch Resources from Home

To help you stay home and stay safe, the Judicial Branch is providing helpful resources online.

COVID-19 Related Questions

For regular updates about the Branch's operations and response to the developing situation with the COVID-19 pandemic, please visit: <https://jud.ct.gov/COVID19.htm>.

Traffic Tickets

For information on how to respond to your traffic ticket, go to: <https://jud.ct.gov/faq/traffic.html>.

Filings and Court Fees

If you are enrolled in E-Services, you may e-file your documents for most types of civil and family cases online at: <https://www.jud.ct.gov/external/super/E-Services/efile/>.

General Help

For general help, the law librarians may be reached by e-mail at: lawlibrarians@jud.ct.gov. There is also a wealth of information at <https://jud.ct.gov/lawlib/index.asp>.

For more information,
please visit the Judicial Branch website at:
www.jud.ct.gov.

Court Procedural Information

For questions about the court process or court forms, a Court Service Center staff person may be reached by e-mail at Court.ServiceCenter@jud.ct.gov. To access court forms, go to: <https://www.jud.ct.gov/webforms/>. Additional information may also be found here: <https://ctlawhelp.org/> and here: <https://www.jud.ct.gov/selfhelp.htm>.

Questions about Probation, Bail, Family Services or Juvenile Residential Services

If you need information about any of these areas, please visit the Court Support Services Division webpage here: <https://www.jud.ct.gov/CSSD/default.htm>.

Frequently Asked Questions

The FAQ page has information on a wide range of topics, and is located here: <https://www.jud.ct.gov/faq/>.

Case Look-Up

To find a civil, family, housing or small claims case, visit: <http://civilinquiry.jud.ct.gov/>. To look up criminal case information, go to: <https://jud.ct.gov/crim.htm>.

Child Support Enforcement Services

For information on Child Support Enforcement Services, please go to: https://jud.ct.gov/childsupport/faq\_eng.htm.

Office of Victim Services

For information about the Office of Victim Services, visit: <https://www.jud.ct.gov/crimevictim/>.