

SUPREME COURT
STATE OF CONNECTICUT

SC 20661

IN RE PETITION OF REAPPORTIONMENT COMMISSION EX REL.

January 25, 2022

Notice

The Supreme Court's order of December 23, 2021, regarding the appointment of the Special Master, included a provision that allowed for the filing of amicus curiae submissions on or before January 24, 2022, addressing the merits of the plan of redistricting and any associated recommendations submitted by the Special Master. The Republican members of the Connecticut Reapportionment Commission and the Democratic members of the Connecticut Reapportionment Commission each submitted amicus curiae briefs in response to the order. No other amicus curiae briefs were filed.

Pursuant to the December 23, 2021 order, a hearing will be held at the Supreme Court on Thursday, January 27, 2022, at 10:00 a.m. Each amicus party will have fifteen minutes to present their positions regarding the plan of redistricting and any associated recommendations filed with the Court by the Special Master. A random process was used to determine which side would address the Court first. Accordingly, the Republican members of the Connecticut Reapportionment Commission will proceed first and may reserve up to three minutes for rebuttal.

By the Court,

 /S/
Carl D. Cicchetti
Chief Clerk

Notice sent: January 25, 2022
Counsel of Record
Secretary of the State of Connecticut