

Connecticut Judicial Branch Speakers Bureau

Invite A Judicial Branch Employee to Speak At Your Next Meeting

www.jud.ct.gov

Mission

The Connecticut Judicial Branch created the Speakers Bureau in 1996 to provide an opportunity for judges and other court officials to address community groups, civic organizations and schools about the state court system. This program and similar efforts are offered to the public to increase its awareness and understanding of the Connecticut court system. The Connecticut Judicial Branch is committed to developing and participating in public education programs such as the Speakers Bureau.

Overview

Employees are available to address a wide-range of topics, including, but not limited to:

- How Can We Help You? Law Library Services, Court Service Centers, Public Information Desks
- Jury Service in Connecticut: What Every Resident Should Know
- What is child support and how does it work in Connecticut?
- Adult Probation: The key to your success
- How to Access the Judicial Branch's Americans with Disabilities programs and services

- Volunteer Attorney Programs and other legal clinics and help
- Information about the Foreclosure Mediation Program
- Programs offered by the Judicial Branch's Family Services Unit
- How the Judicial Branch helps individuals with Limited English Proficiency (LEP)
- Legal Rights in Juvenile Detention
- How Small Claims Court Works
- What Happens when you go to Housing Court
- Rights of Crime Victims in Connecticut

Request a speaker

All speaker services are voluntary and without charge.

Please note that Judicial Branch employees are prohibited from giving legal advice and from commenting on a pending case. If your event is a fundraiser, please contact the External Affairs Division, so that it can be determined whether the Judicial Branch employee may participate.

Check here if you would prefer the speaker to participate via a remote platform.

For additional information, or to schedule a speaker at your next event, please contact:

Judicial Branch
External Affairs Division
231 Capitol Avenue
Hartford, Connecticut 06106

E-mail address:
external.affairs@jud.ct.gov

Telephone: (860) 757-2270

Fax number: (860) 757-2215

Contact

To request a speaker, please provide:

Name

Street Address

City, State, Zip Code

Organization Name

Telephone

E-Mail Address

Date and Time of Event

Place of Event

Type of Meeting and Audience Size

Amount of Time Allotted for the Presentation

This information should be sent to:
external.affairs@jud.ct.gov

The Judicial Branch of the State of Connecticut complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you need a reasonable accommodation in accordance with the ADA, contact an ADA contact person listed at www.jud.ct.gov/ADA/.