You do not need to wait until the case management date to get divorced or legally separated.

You may get divorced or legally separated at any time if you and your spouse have an agreement on all issues and you have filed certain documents.

You may obtain the forms from the Clerk's Office, the Court Service Center or the Judicial Branch's website at www.jud.ct.gov.

Once you have completed all of the paperwork, you may file it along with the Motion to Waive Statutory Time Period – Divorce or Legal Separation form (JD-FM-247). A judge will review your request and you will be notified of the decision.
