

CONNECTICUT CHILD SUPPORT SERVICES

We are here to help you!

Connecticut Child Support Services is a program dedicated to help families with all their child support needs. Connecticut Child Support Services provide neutral assistance to help all parties navigate the child support and court processes. Connecticut Child Support Services are offered as a partnership through the Department of Social Services – Office of Child Support Services (DSS-OCSS), the Judicial Branch – Support Enforcement Services (SES), and the Office of the Attorney General (OAG).

What services are provided?

We use a variety of resources to help enforce child support orders and collect on arrears. Services include:

- Quick scheduling of hearings before a Family Support Magistrate
- Payment monitoring
- Direct Deposit of payments to a bank account or debit card
- Obtaining medical support
- Modifying child support orders
- Options to pay on-line and by credit card
- Interstate services
- Paternity testing
- Locating parents and assets
- Income withholdings
- Federal and state tax refund interception
- Personal and real property liens

Do Connecticut Child Support Services cost anything?

There is no cost to apply for Connecticut Child Support Services. Connecticut will collect an annual fee of $35.00 from the person who receives child support if the program collects a minimum level of support (currently $550.00) in a one-year period. This fee may be waived for some families that also receive or received certain other state services.

How do I apply for Connecticut Child Support Services?

Applying for child support services is easy! You can get an application for Connecticut Child Support Services in person at any Judicial Branch Support Enforcement Services office or any Department of Social Services Office of Child Support Services location. Applications are also available on-line at www.jud.ct.gov/childsupport and portal.ct.gov/DSS/Child-Support/Child-Support; they can also be mailed or emailed to you upon request.

After you complete the application, mail, email, or drop it off at any SES or DSS-OCSS office. A child support professional will contact you about the next steps.
