NOTICE

Public Hearing on Practice Book Revisions
To the Rules of Appellate Procedure
Being Considered by the Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Appellate Court

On June 20, 2019, at 10 a.m., a public hearing will be conducted pursuant to General Statutes § 51-14 (c) in the Supreme Court courtroom in Hartford for the purpose of receiving comments concerning revisions to the Rules of Appellate Procedure that are being considered by the Justices and Judges as well as any proposed new rule or any change in an existing rule that any member of the public deems desirable. The revisions proposed by the Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules follow this notice and are posted on the Judicial Branch website at <http://www.jud.ct.gov/pb.htm>.

Comments may be forwarded to the co-chairs of the Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules by e-mail to Attorney Jill Begemann at Jill.Begemann@connapp.jud.ct.gov or may be forwarded to the co-chairs at the following address and should be received by June 14, 2019.

Co-Chairs of the Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules
Attn: Attorney Jill Begemann
Connecticut Appellate Court
75 Elm Street
Hartford, CT 06106

Each speaker at the public hearing will be limited to five minutes. Anyone who believes that they cannot cover their remarks within that time period may submit written comments to the Committee. If written comments are submitted, ten copies should be provided.

Wheelchair access is located in the rear of the Supreme Court building, and may be reached from the staff parking lot between Lafayette and Oak Streets. There are a limited number of accessible parking spaces in the gated staff lot, which may be entered from Oak Street. Use the intercom at the gate to speak to security about the availability of parking. Once at the accessible door, use the intercom to request entry from security. If you would like to attend the meeting and need an accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act, please e-mail Carl Cicchetti at Carl.Cicchetti@connapp.jud.ct.gov before June 14, 2019.

Co-Chairs, Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules

INTRODUCTION

The following are amendments to the Rules of Appellate Procedure that are being considered by the Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Appellate Court. These amendments are indicated by brackets for deletions and underlined text for added language.

Sec. 61-7. Joint and Consolidated Appeals

(a) (1) Two or more plaintiffs or defendants in the same case may appeal jointly or severally. Separate cases heard together and involving at least one common party may as of right be appealed jointly, provided all the trial court docket numbers are shown on the appeal form (JD-SC-033).

(2) Prior to the filing of an appeal, the trial court, on motion of any party or on its own motion, may order that a joint appeal be filed in any situation not covered by the preceding paragraph.

(3) In the case of a joint appeal, only one entry fee is required. The appellant filing the appeal shall pay the entry fee. [and any] When additional appellants are represented by other counsel or are self-represented, a single [shall file a signed] joint appeal consent form (JD-SC-035) signed by all joint appellants shall be filed on the same business day the appeal is filed[within ten days of the filing of the appeal].

(b) (1) The Supreme Court, on motion of any party or on its own motion, may order that appeals pending in the Supreme Court be consolidated.

(2) When an appeal pending in the Supreme Court involves the same cause of action, transaction or occurrence as an appeal pending in the Appellate Court, the Supreme Court may, on motion of any party or on its own motion, order that the appeals be consolidated in the Supreme Court. The court may order consolidation at any time before the assignment of the appeals for hearing.

(3) The Appellate Court, on motion of any party or on its own motion, may order that appeals pending in the Appellate Court be consolidated.

(4) There shall be no refund of fees if appeals are consolidated.

(c) Whenever appeals are jointly filed or are consolidated, all appellants shall file a single, consolidated brief and appendix. All appellees shall file a single, consolidated brief or, if applicable, a single, consolidated brief and appendix. If the parties cannot agree upon the contents of the brief and appendix, or if the issues to be briefed are not common to the joint parties, any party may file a motion for permission to file a separate brief and appendix.

COMMENTARY: The purpose of this proposed amendment is to require that a joint appeal consent form be filed on the same business day that the appeal is filed.

Sec. 61-11. Stay of Execution in Noncriminal Cases

(a) Automatic stay of execution

Except where otherwise provided by statute or other law, proceedings to enforce or carry out the judgment or order shall be automatically stayed until the time to file an appeal has expired. If an appeal is filed, such proceedings shall be stayed until the final determination of the cause. If the case goes to judgment on appeal, any stay thereafter shall be in accordance with Section 71-6 (motions for reconsideration), Section 84-3 (petitions for certification by the Connecticut Supreme Court), and Section 71-7 (petitions for certiorari by the United States Supreme Court).

(b) Matters in which no automatic stay is available under this rule

Under this section, there shall be no automatic stay in actions concerning attorneys pursuant to chapter 2 of these rules, in juvenile matters brought pursuant to chapters 26 through 35a, or in any administrative appeal except as otherwise provided in this subsection.

Unless a court shall otherwise order, any stay that was in effect during the pendency of any administrative appeal in the trial court shall continue until the filing of an appeal or the expiration of the appeal period, or any new appeal period, as provided in Section 63-1. If an appeal is filed, any further stay shall be sought pursuant to Section 61-12.

For purposes of this rule, “administrative appeal” means an appeal filed from a final judgment of the trial court or the Compensation Review Board rendered in an appeal from a decision of any officer, board, commission, or agency of the state or of any political subdivision thereof. In addition to appeals filed pursuant to the Uniform Administrative Procedure Act, “administrative appeal” includes, among other matters, zoning appeals, teacher tenure appeals, tax appeals and unemployment compensation appeals.

(c) Stays in family matters and cases involving orders of civil protection, and appeals from decisions of the Superior Court in family support magistrate matters

Unless otherwise ordered, no automatic stay shall apply to orders of relief from physical abuse pursuant to General Statutes § 46b-15, to orders of civil protection pursuant to General Statutes § 46b-16a, to orders for exclusive possession of a residence pursuant to General Statutes § [§] 46b-81 or §_46b-83 or to orders of periodic alimony, support, custody or visitation in family matters brought pursuant to chapter 25, or to any decision of the Superior Court in an appeal of a final determination of a support order by a family support magistrate brought pursuant to chapter 25a, or to any later modification of such orders. The automatic orders set forth in Section 25-5 (b) (1), (2), (3), (5) and (7) shall remain in effect during any appeal period and, if an appeal is filed, until the final determination of the cause unless terminated, modified or amended further by order of a judicial authority upon motion of either party.

Any party may file a motion to terminate or impose a stay in matters covered by this subsection, either before or after judgment is rendered, based upon the existence or expectation of an appeal. Such a motion shall be filed in accordance with the procedures in subsection (e) of this rule or Section 61-12. The judge hearing such motion may terminate or impose a stay of any order, pending appeal, as appropriate, after considering (1) the needs and interests of the parties, their children and any other persons affected by such order; (2) the potential prejudice that may be caused to the parties, their children and any other persons affected, if a stay is entered, not entered or is terminated; (3) if the appeal is from a judgment of dissolution, the need to preserve, pending appeal, the mosaic of orders established in the judgment; (4) the need to preserve the rights of the party taking the appeal to obtain effective relief if the appeal is successful; (5) the effect, if any, of the automatic orders under Section 25-5 on any of the foregoing considerations; and (6) any other factors affecting the equities of the parties.

The judge who entered the order in a family matter from which an appeal lies may terminate any stay in that matter upon motion of a party as provided in this subsection or sua sponte, after considering the factors set forth in this subsection or if the judge is of the opinion that an extension of time to appeal is sought or the appeal is filed only for delay. Whether acting on a motion of a party or sua sponte, the judge shall hold a hearing prior to terminating the stay.

(d) Termination of stay

In all cases not governed by subsection (c), termination of a stay may be sought in accordance with subsection (e) of this rule. If the judge who tried the case is of the opinion that (1) an extension to appeal is sought, or the appeal is filed, only for delay or (2) the due administration of justice so requires, the judge may at any time, upon motion or sua sponte, order that the stay be terminated. Whether acting on a motion of a party or sua sponte, the judge shall hold a hearing prior to terminating the stay.

(e) Motions to terminate stay

A motion to terminate a stay of execution filed before judgment is entered shall be filed with the trial court, and the judge who tried or presided over the matter may rule upon the motion when judgment is entered. If such a motion is filed after judgment but before an appeal is filed, the motion shall be filed with the clerk of the trial court and may be ruled upon by the trial judge thereafter. After an appeal is filed, such a motion shall be filed with the appellate clerk and shall be forwarded by the appellate clerk to the trial judge for a decision. If the judge who tried or presided over the case is unavailable, the motion shall be forwarded to the clerk of the trial court in which the case was tried, who shall assign the motion for a hearing and decision to any judge of the Superior Court.

Upon hearing and consideration of the motion, the trial court shall file with the clerk of the trial court its written or oral memorandum of decision that shall include the factual and legal basis therefor. If oral, the decision shall be transcribed by the court reporter and signed by the trial court. If an appeal has not been filed, the clerk shall enter the decision on the trial court docket and shall send notice of the decision to counsel of record. If an appeal has been filed, the clerk of the trial court shall enter the decision on the trial court docket and send notice of the decision to the appellate clerk, and the appellate clerk shall issue notice of the decision to all counsel of record.

(f) Motions to request stay

Requests for a stay pending appeal where there is no automatic stay shall be governed by Section 61-12.

(For stays of execution in criminal cases, see Section 61-13; for stays in death penalty cases, see Section 61-15.)

(g) Strict foreclosure—motion rendering ineffective a judgment of strict foreclosure

In any action for foreclosure in which the owner of the equity has filed, and the court has denied, at least two prior motions to open or other similar motion, no automatic stay shall arise upon the court's denial of any subsequent contested motion by that party, unless the party certifies under oath, in an affidavit accompanying the motion, that the motion was filed for good cause arising after the court's ruling on the party's most recent motion. Such affidavit shall recite the specific facts relied on in support of the moving party's claim of good cause. If, notwithstanding the submission of such an affidavit of good cause, the plaintiff contends that there is no good cause to stay the court's judgment of strict foreclosure pending resolution of the appeal, the plaintiff may seek termination of the automatic stay by filing a motion requesting such relief accompanied by an affidavit stating the basis for the plaintiff's claim. In the event such a motion to terminate stay is filed, it shall be set down for argument and the taking of evidence, if necessary, on the second short calendar next following the filing of the motion. There shall be no automatic appellate stay in the event that the court grants the motion to terminate the stay and, if necessary, sets new law dates. There shall be no automatic stay pending a motion for review of an order terminating a stay under this subsection.

(h) Foreclosure by sale—motion rendering ineffective a judgment of foreclosure by sale

In any action for foreclosure in which the owner of the equity has filed a motion to open or other similar motion, which motion was denied fewer than twenty days prior to the scheduled auction date, the auction shall proceed as scheduled notwithstanding the court's denial of the motion, but no motion for approval of the sale shall be filed until the expiration of the appeal period following the denial of the motion without an appeal having been filed. The trial court shall not vacate the automatic stay following its denial of the motion during such appeal period.

COMMENTARY: The purpose of this proposed amendment is to eliminate automatic appellate stays in cases involving orders of civil protection.

Sec. 63-7. Waiver of Fees, Costs and Security—Criminal Cases

Any defendant in a criminal case who is indigent and desires to appeal[, and has not previously been determined to be indigent,] may, within the time provided by the rules for taking an appeal, make written application to the trial court for relief from payment of fees, costs and expenses. The application must be under oath and recite, or it must be accompanied by an affidavit reciting, the grounds upon which the applicant proposes to appeal and the facts concerning the applicant's financial status.

The application must be sent to the public defender's office for investigation. The judicial authority shall assign the request for waiver of fees, costs and expenses for hearing within twenty days after filing, and the trial counsel, the trial public defender's office to which the application had been sent for investigation and the chief of legal services of the public defender's office shall be notified in writing by the clerk's office of the date of such hearing.

The judicial authority shall act promptly on the application following the hearing. Upon determination by the judicial authority that a defendant in a criminal case is indigent, the trial court may (1) waive payment by the defendant of fees specified by statute and of taxable costs, (2) order that the necessary expenses of prosecuting the appeal be paid by the state, and (3) appoint appellate counsel and permit the withdrawal of the trial attorney's appearance provided the judicial authority is satisfied that that attorney has cooperated fully with appellate counsel in the preparation of the defendant's appeal as set forth in Section 43-33.

When the judicial authority has appointed an attorney in private practice to represent the defendant upon appeal, the attorney shall obtain the approval of the judicial authority who presided at the trial before incurring any expense in excess of $100, including the expense of obtaining a transcript of the necessary proceedings or testimony. The judicial authority shall authorize a transcript at state expense only of the portions of proceedings or testimony which may be pertinent to the issues on appeal.

The sole remedy of any defendant desiring the court to review an order concerning the waiver of fees, costs and security or the appointment of counsel shall be by motion for review under Section 66-6.

COMMENTARY: The purpose of this proposed amendment is to make the language of this section consistent with Section 43-33.

Sec. 63-10. Preargument Conferences

The chief justice or the chief judge or a designee may, in cases deemed appropriate, direct that conferences of the parties be scheduled in advance of oral argument. All civil cases are eligible for preargument conferences except habeas corpus appeals, appeals involving juvenile matters, including child protection appeals as defined in Section 79a-1, summary process appeals, foreclosure appeals, and appeals from the suspension of a motor vehicle license due to operating under the influence of liquor or drugs. [A party in an exempt case may file a request for a preargument conference with the appellate clerk explaining why the case should not be exempt.] In any exempt case, all parties appearing and participating in the appeal may file a joint request for a preargument conference. The chief justice may designate a judge trial referee or senior judge to preside at a conference. The scheduling of or attendance at a preargument conference shall not affect the duty of the parties to adhere to the times set for the filing of briefs. Failure of counsel to attend a preargument conference may result in the imposition of sanctions under Section 85-2. Unless other arrangements have been approved in advance by the conference judge, parties shall be present at the conference site and available for consultation. When a party against whom a claim is made is insured, an insurance adjuster for such insurance company shall be available by telephone at the time of such preargument conference unless the conference judge, in his or her discretion, requires the attendance of the adjuster at the conference. The conference proceedings shall not be brought to the attention of the court by the presiding officer or any of the parties unless the conference results in a final disposition of the appeal.

The following matters may be considered:

- (1) Possibility of settlement;
- (2) Simplification of issues;
- (3) Amendments to the preliminary statement of issues;
- (4) Transfer to the Supreme Court;

- (5) Timetable for the filing of briefs;
- (6) En banc review; and
- (7) Such other matters as the conference judge shall consider appropriate.

All matters scheduled for a preargument conference before a judge trial referee are referred to that official by the chief court administrator pursuant to General Statutes § 52-434a, which vests judge trial referees with the same powers and jurisdiction as Superior Court judges and senior judges, including the power to implement settlements by opening and modifying judgments.

COMMENTARY: The purpose of this proposed amendment is to exempt appeals in foreclosure cases from the preargument conference program. The proposed amendment permits parties in an exempt case to request a preargument conference if all the parties appearing and participating in the appeal agree.

Sec. 70-4. Time Allowed for Oral Argument; Who May Argue

Unless the court grants a request for additional time made before oral argument begins, argument of any case shall not exceed one-half hour on each side. The time allowed may be apportioned among counsel on the same side of a case as they may choose. The court may terminate the argument whenever in its judgment further argument is unnecessary.

Prior to the date assigned for hearing, counsel of record may file a request with the appellate clerk to allow more than one counsel to present oral argument for one party to the appeal.

In cases in which there is a firm appearance, or in which there are multiple appearances for the same party, if an attorney from the appearing firm or who already has an appearance wishes to argue the appeal but is not identified as the arguing attorney on the brief, the attorney who will be arguing the appeal shall file a letter notifying the court of the change as soon as possible prior to argument.

No argument shall be allowed any party who has not filed a brief or who has not joined in the brief of another party.

COMMENTARY: The purpose of this proposed amendment is to require that counsel arguing the appeal notify the court of any change to arguing counsel as soon as possible prior to argument.

Sec. 72-1. Writs of Error; In General

(a) Writs of error for errors in matters of law only may be brought from a final judgment of the Superior Court to the [Supreme Court] Appellate Court in the following cases: (1) a decision binding on an aggrieved nonparty; (2) a summary decision of criminal contempt; (3) a denial of transfer of a small claims action to the regular docket; and (4) as otherwise necessary or appropriate in aid of its jurisdiction and agreeable to the usages and principles of law.

(b) No writ of error may be brought in any civil or criminal proceeding for the correction of any error where (1) the error might have been reviewed by process of appeal, or by way of certification, or (2) the parties, by failure timely to seek a transfer or otherwise, have consented to have the case determined by a court or tribunal from whose judgment there is no right of appeal or opportunity for certification.

COMMENTARY: The Judicial Branch has proposed an amendment to General Statutes § 51-199 (b) (10), which requires that writs of error be filed directly in the Supreme Court, to require that such writs be filed in the Appellate Court. It is intended that this proposed amendment to Section 72-1 will go into effect on the effective date of the statutory amendment.

Sec. 72-3. Applicable Procedure

(a) The writ of error, if in proper form, shall be allowed and signed by a judge or clerk of the court in which the judgment or decree was rendered. The writ of error shall be presented for signature within twenty days of the date notice of the judgment or decision complained of is given but shall be signed by the judge or clerk even if not presented in a timely manner. Failure without cause to present the writ of error in a timely manner may be a ground for dismissal of the writ of error by the court having appellate jurisdiction[Supreme Court].

(b) The writ of error shall be served and returned as other civil process, except that the writ of error shall be served at least ten days before the return day and shall be returned to the appellate clerk at least one day before the return day. The return days [of the Supreme Court] are any Tuesday not less than twelve nor more than thirty days after the writ of error is signed by a judge or clerk of the court.

(c) The writ of error shall be deemed filed the day it is properly returned to the appellate clerk. The plaintiff in error shall return the writ of error to the appellate clerk by (1) complying with Sections 60-7 or 60-8 by paying the required fee, submitting a signed application for waiver of fees and the order of the trial court granting the fee waiver, or certifying that no fees are required; (2) submitting the matter in accordance with the provisions of Section 63-3; and (3) submitting the allowed and signed writ of error and the signed marshal's return to the appellate clerk.

(d) An electronically filed writ of error will be docketed upon the submission of the matter in accordance with Section 63-3 but will be rejected upon review by the appellate clerk if the plaintiff in error fails to comply with Section 60-7 or to submit an allowed and signed writ of error and the signed marshal's return on the same business day the matter is submitted in accordance with the provisions of Section 63-3. The writ of error may also be returned upon review by the appellate clerk for noncompliance with the Rules of Appellate Procedure. The appellate clerk shall forthwith give notice to all parties of the filing of the writ of error.

(e) If the writ of error is brought against a judge of the Superior Court to contest a summary decision of criminal contempt by that judge, the defendant in error shall be the Superior Court. In all other writs of error, the writ of error shall bear the caption of the underlying action in which the judgment or decision was rendered. All parties to the underlying action shall be served in accordance with chapter 8 of these rules.

(f) Within twenty days after filing the writ of error, the plaintiff in error shall file with the appellate clerk such documents as are necessary to present the claims of error made in the writ of error, including pertinent pleadings, memoranda of decision and judgment file, accompanied by a certification that a copy thereof has been served on each counsel of record in accordance with Section 62-7.

(g) In the event a transcript is necessary, the plaintiff in error shall follow the procedure set forth in Sections 63-8 and 63-8A.

(h) Within ten days of the filing by the plaintiff in error of the documents referred to in subsections (f) and (g) of this rule, the defendant in error may file such additional documents as are necessary to defend the action, accompanied by a certification that a copy thereof has been served on each counsel of record in accordance with Section 62-7.

(i) Answers or other pleas shall not be filed in response to any writ of error.

COMMENTARY: The Judicial Branch has proposed an amendment to General Statutes § 51-199 (b) (10), which requires that writs of error be filed directly in the Supreme Court, to require that such writs be filed in the Appellate Court. It is intended that this proposed amendment to Section 72-3 will go into effect on the effective date of the statutory amendment.

Sec. 77-1. Petition for Review Seeking Expedited Review of an Order concerning Court Closure, or an Order That Seals or Limits the Disclosure of Files, Affidavits, Documents or Other Material

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), any person affected by a court order which prohibits the public or any person from attending any session of court, or any order that seals or limits the disclosure of files, affidavits, documents or other material on file with the court or filed in connection with a court proceeding, may seek review of such order by filing a petition for review with the Appellate Court within seventy-two hours after the issuance of the order. The petition shall fully comply with Sections 66-2 and 66-3. The petition shall not exceed ten pages in length, exclusive of the appendix, except with special permission of the Appellate Court. An appendix containing the information or complaint, the answer, all motions pertaining to the matter, the opinion or orders of the trial court sought to be reviewed, a list of all parties with the names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, and, if applicable, the juris number of their counsel, the names of all judges who participated in the case, and a transcript order acknowledgment form (JD-ES-38), shall be filed with the petition for review.

Any person filing a petition for review pursuant to this rule shall deliver a copy of the petition and appendix to (1) all parties to the case and (2) any nonparty who sought the closure order or order sealing or limiting disclosure in compliance with the provisions of Section 62-7 on the same day as the petition is filed. Any party or nonparty who sought such order may file a response to the petition for review within ninety-six hours after the filing of the petition for review. Failure to file a response shall not preclude the party or nonparty who sought the order under review from participating in the hearing on the petition. Within one business day of the receipt of the transcript and the certificate of completion provided for by Section 63-8 (c), the person filing the petition for review shall file the transcript and the certificate of completion with the Appellate Court.

The filing of any petition for review of a court order which prohibits the public or any person from attending any session of court shall stay the order until the final determination of the review. The filing of any petition for review of an order that seals or limits the disclosure of files, affidavits, documents or other material on file with the court shall not stay the order during the review.

After the receipt of the transcript and the response to the petition, if any, the Appellate Court shall hold an expedited hearing on any petition for review. The appellate clerk will notify the petitioner, the parties and any nonparties who sought the closure order or order sealing or limiting disclosure of files, affidavits, documents or other material on file with the court or filed in connection with a court proceeding of the date and time of the hearing. After such hearing the Appellate Court may affirm, modify or vacate the order reviewed.

(b) This section shall not apply to court orders concerning any session of court conducted pursuant to General Statutes § [§] 46b-11, § 46b-49, § 46b-122, § 54-76h[, and any order issued pursuant to a rule that seals or limits the disclosure of any affidavit in support of an arrest warrant,] or any other provision of the General Statutes under which the court is authorized to close proceedings. This section also shall not apply to any order issued pursuant to General Statutes § 46b-11 or § 54-33c or any other provision of the General Statutes under which the court is authorized to seal or limit the disclosure of files, affidavits, documents or materials and any order issued pursuant to a court rule that seals or limits the disclosure of any affidavit in support of an arrest warrant.

COMMENTARY: The purpose of this proposed amendment is to clarify this rule and make it consistent with the exceptions set forth in General Statutes § 51-164x.

Sec. 81-2. Form of Petition

(a) A petition for certification shall contain the following sections in the order indicated here:

(1) A statement of the questions presented for review, expressed in the terms and circumstances of the case but without unnecessary detail.

(2) A statement of the basis for certification identifying the specific reasons why the Appellate Court should allow the extraordinary relief of certification. These reasons may include but are not limited to the following:

(A) The court below has decided a question of substance not theretofore determined by the Supreme Court or the Appellate Court or has decided it in a way probably not in accord with applicable decisions of the Supreme Court or the Appellate Court.

(B) The decision under review is in conflict with other decisions of the court below.

(C) The court below has so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, or has so far sanctioned such a departure by any other court, as to call for an exercise of the Appellate Court's supervision.

(D) A question of great public importance is involved.

(3) A summary of the case containing the facts material to the consideration of the questions presented, reciting the disposition of the matter in the trial court, and describing specifically how the trial court decided the questions presented for review in the petition.

(4) A concise argument amplifying the reasons relied upon to support the petition. No separate memorandum of law in support of the petition will be accepted by the appellate clerk.

(5) An appendix containing a table of contents, the operative complaint, all briefs filed by all parties, the opinion or order of the trial court sought to be reviewed, a copy of the order on any motion which would stay or extend the time period for filing the petition, and a list of all parties to the appeal in the trial court with the names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, and, if applicable, the juris numbers of their counsel. The appendix shall be paginated separately from the petition with consecutively numbered pages preceded by the letter "A."

(b) The petition shall not exceed ten pages in length, exclusive of the appendix, except with special permission of the appellate clerk. The petition shall be typewritten and fully double spaced, and shall not exceed three lines to the vertical inch or twenty-seven lines to the page. Footnotes and block quotations may be single spaced. Only the following two typefaces, of 12 point or larger size, are approved for use in petitions: arial and univers. Each page of a petition shall have as a minimum the following margins: top, 1 inch; left, 1 and 1/4 inch; right, 1/2 inch; and bottom, 1 inch.

COMMENTARY: The purpose of this proposed amendment is to require that a table of contents be included in an appendix filed with a petition for certification to appeal to the Appellate Court.

Sec. 84-5. Form of Petition

(a) A petition for certification shall contain the following sections in the order indicated here:

(1) A statement of the questions presented for review, expressed in the terms and circumstances of the case but without unnecessary detail. The Supreme Court will ordinarily consider only those questions squarely raised, subject to any limitation in the order granting certification.

(2) A statement of the basis for certification identifying the specific reasons, including but not limited to those enumerated in Section 84-2, why the Supreme Court should allow the extraordinary relief of certification.

(3) A summary of the case containing the facts material to the consideration of the questions presented, reciting the disposition of the matter in the Appellate Court, and describing specifically how the Appellate Court decided the questions presented for review in the petition.

(4) A concise argument amplifying the reasons relied upon to support the petition. No separate memorandum of law in support of the petition will be accepted by the appellate clerk.

(5) An appendix, which shall be paginated separately from the petition with consecutively numbered pages preceded by the letter "A," containing:

(A) a table of contents,

A the opinion or order of the Appellate Court sought to be reviewed,

~~B~~ if the opinion or order of the Appellate Court was per curiam or a summary affirmance or dismissal, a copy of the trial court's memorandum of decision that was entered in connection with the claim raised by the petitioner before the Appellate Court, or, if no memorandum was filed, a copy of the trial court's ruling on the matter,

~~C~~ a copy of the order on any motion which would stay or extend the time period for filing the petition,

~~D~~ a list of all parties to the appeal in the Appellate Court with the names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, and, if applicable, the juris numbers of their trial and appellate counsel.

(b) The petition shall not exceed ten pages in length, exclusive of the appendix, except with special permission of the appellate clerk. The petition shall be typewritten and fully double spaced, and shall not exceed three lines to the vertical inch or twenty-seven lines to the page. Footnotes and block quotations may be single spaced. Only the following two typefaces, of 12 point or larger size, are approved for use in petitions: arial and univers. Each page of a petition shall have as a minimum the following margins: top, 1 inch; left, 1 and 1/4 inch; right, 1/2 inch; and bottom, 1 inch.

COMMENTARY: The purpose of this proposed amendment is to require that a table of contents be included in an appendix filed with a petition for certification to appeal to the Supreme Court, and to require appellate counsel to include a copy of the trial court's memorandum of decision with any petition for certification when the Appellate Court opinion from which certification is sought is a per curiam opinion.
