To start a small claims case, you must fill out a Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit (form JD-CV-40), and attach copies of any related documents you wish to file with the Court. Keep the original Writ and Notice of Suit and attached documents. You, or your representative, must then serve (deliver) a copy of the Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit (form JD-CV-40) to each defendant using 1 of the 4 methods listed below.

1. Service (delivery) by United State Postal Service (USPS) Priority Mail with Delivery Confirmation:

Mail to each defendant via USPS Priority Mail with Delivery Confirmation a copy of the Writ and Notice of Suit, attached documents, and the Instructions to Defendant (form JD-CV-121). For each copy you have mailed, the USPS will send you a delivery confirmation. When you receive delivery confirmation, file the original Writ and Notice of Suit, copies of the attached documents, a Statement of Service (form JD-CV-123) for each defendant, and the delivery confirmation(s) with the court.

2. Service (delivery) by USPS Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested:

Mail to each defendant via USPS Certified Mail with Return Receipt Requested a copy of the Writ and Notice of Suit, attached documents, and the Instructions to Defendant (form JD-CV-121). For each copy you have mailed, the USPS will send you a Return Receipt slip. When you receive the signed return receipt(s), file the original Writ and Notice of Suit, copies of the attached documents, a Statement of Service (form JD-CV-123) for each defendant and the signed return receipt(s) with the court.

3. Service (delivery) by a nationally recognized courier service providing delivery confirmation:

Send to each defendant via nationally recognized courier service providing delivery confirmation a copy of the Writ and Notice of Suit, attached documents, and the Instructions to Defendant (form JD-CV-121). For each copy you have sent, the courier service will send you a delivery confirmation. When you receive the delivery confirmation, file the original Writ and Notice of Suit, copies of the attached documents, a Statement of Service (form JD-CV-123) for each defendant and the delivery confirmation with the court.

4. Service by a proper officer, for example, a marshal:

Give to the proper officer a copy of the Writ and Notice of Suit, attached documents, and the Instructions to Defendant (form JD-CV-121). After the proper officer serves (delivers) the Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit, he or she will file the original Writ and Notice of Suit and copies of the attached documents with the court, along with his or her return of service (a written statement describing how the writ was served).

Exceptions:

Out-of-State Businesses:

For each defendant who is an out-of-state business (a business organized under the laws of a state other than Connecticut), you must use method 4, service by a proper officer.

Out-of-State Insurance Companies:

There are special requirements for service on (delivery to) out-of-state insurance companies. You can find information on these requirements in Chapter 697, Title 38a of the Connecticut General Statutes and the Connecticut Insurance Department website at: www.ct.gov/cid.

The Small Claims Writ and Notice of Suit must be returned to the court not later than 1 month after the date of service (delivery).

When the court receives the Writ and Notice of Suit, the clerk will set an answer date and will send a notice to all plaintiffs or their representatives of the docket number (case number) and answer date. The clerk will also send an answer form that includes the docket number and answer date to each defendant at the addresses provided by the plaintiff.
