Crime charged against the child involving fire starting behavior			In violation of General Statute

I have been charged with the offense noted above involving fire starting behavior. I am applying for the Fire Starting Behavior Treatment Program. If my application is granted I agree:

1. To take part in a fire starting behavior treatment program and to satisfactorily complete such program.
2. To comply with any orders of the court.
3. That normally, the law requires that I be prosecuted in a certain time period and if I am accepted into this program, the prosecutor will have more time to prosecute me if I don't finish it successfully (tolling of the statute of limitations).

I request that I be granted the Fire Starting Behavior Treatment Program under Public Act 19-135.

I have read this entire application, or have had it read to me, and understand it.
