The defendant listed above has filed an application to vacate (cancel) their conviction for the crime(s) listed above.

The defendant will have to prove that their participation in the crime(s) was a result of having been a victim of human trafficking or slavery in order for the court to vacate (cancel) the conviction(s). If the court vacates the defendant's conviction(s), the conviction(s) will no longer stand, and the case for the charge(s) that the conviction(s) were based on will be dismissed.

As a victim of the crime(s) listed above, you have the right to get this notice and the right to tell the court what you think about the defendant's application to vacate the conviction(s). If you want to speak to the court or offer any comments or opinions about the defendant's application, you can come to the court on the Court Hearing Date at the time listed above. Or, you can send your comments to the court in writing. If you send your comments in writing, please include a copy of this notice.

You can call the office of the State's Attorney at the phone number listed above any time before the Court Hearing Date listed above to find out if the date or time of the defendant's hearing on this application has changed.
