  - III. Consideration and action on Informal JE 2018-07 - Request for Reconsideration
  - IV. Consideration and action on Informal JE 2018-09
Issue: May a Judicial Official resell tickets to a sporting event to friends or a ticket reseller for more than the Judicial Official paid for the tickets?
  - V. Consideration and action on Informal JE 2018-11
Issue: May a Judicial Official provide training in collaborative divorce?
  - VI. Consideration and action on Informal JE 2018-12
Issue: May a Judicial Official, who is a former municipal official, march in a municipal parade with other former municipal officials?
  - VII. Consideration and action on Informal JE 2018-13
Issue: May a Judicial Official who owns a real estate broker's license continue to receive referral fees consistent with the real estate industry if he connects buyers and sellers of real estate?
  - VIII. Consideration and action on Informal JE 2018-14
Issue: Prior to a Judicial Official's appointment to the bench, the Judicial Official served as a Criminal Justice Act panel attorney, representing indigent defendants when there was a conflict with the federal public defender's office. The Judicial Official's former law firm contacted the Judicial Official and asked the Judicial Official to complete a form in support of the firm's request for additional compensation beyond the standard maximum, which the court can approve for good cause shown. The appointed attorney is required to complete the form. May the Judicial Official complete the form?
  - IX. Consideration and action on Informal JE 2018-15
Issue: May a Judicial Official serve as the president of a local chapter of a Connecticut college's alumni association?
  - X. Adjournment
