

Swearing In of the Hon. Richard A. Robinson as Chief Justice Scheduled for Monday, June 18, 2018

Gov. Dannel P. Malloy will swear in the Honorable Richard A. Robinson as chief justice on Monday, June 18, in the Supreme Court Courtroom, at 231 Capitol Ave. The ceremonial swearing-in of Connecticut's first African-American chief justice will begin at 11 a.m. and last about a half-hour.

Please note that seating in the courtroom will be very limited. As such, CT-N will serve as the media video pool, and The Hartford Courant will serve as the media still camera pool. CT-N will provide a press box with a clean HD-SDI video feed with embedded audio in the Attorney Conference Room at the Supreme Court. In addition, CT-N plans to livestream the ceremony on its website.

The contact at CT-N is Dave Festa at 860-240-0365; the contact at The Courant is John Ferraro at 860-241-6208. The contact at the Court is the External Affairs Division, 860-757-2270.

From 1985-1988, Chief Justice Robinson was staff counsel for the City of Stamford Law Department. In 1988, he became assistant corporation counsel in Stamford, where he remained until his appointment as a judge of the Superior Court in 2000. He remained a Superior Court judge for the next seven years and was appointed as a judge of the Connecticut Appellate Court on December 10, 2007, as a justice of the Supreme Court on December 19, 2013, and as chief justice on May 3, 2018.

Further biographical information on Chief Justice Robinson is available here.