THE SUPREME COURT IS SOLICITING AMICUS CURIAE BRIEFS IN:

Janet H. Foisie v. Robert A. Foisie, SC 20384

This appeal was filed with the Appellate Court on June 5, 2019, and was transferred to the Supreme Court on November 6, 2019. The Court invites amici curiae to file briefs that address the following question:

"In this post-judgment marital dissolution proceeding in which a spouse seeks to open financial orders on the basis of fraud, did the trial court err in denying the plaintiff's motion to substitute the deceased husband's estate as defendant on the ground that a spouse may not continue to pursue a motion to open a dissolution judgment after the other spouse has died?"

As this is a court-initiated request, an application for permission to file as amicus curiae is not required. If you accept the Court's invitation, you must file the amicus brief limited to 10 pages on or before December 9, 2019, in compliance with Practice Book Section 67-7, including the disclosure required in the first footnote on the first page of text. No extensions of time or oral argument will be permitted for amicus curiae, and responsive briefs by the parties will not be allowed.
