THE SUPREME COURT IS SOLICITING AMICUS CURIAE BRIEFS IN:

Rainbow Housing Corporation et al. v. Town of Cromwell, SC 20506

This appeal was filed with the Appellate Court on June 24, 2019, and was transferred to the Supreme Court on October 14, 2020. The Court invites amici curiae to file briefs that address the following question:

"Did the trial court properly conclude that the plaintiffs, who operate a supervised apartment program that includes services rendered by contract with the state Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services for men who suffer from severe mental illness, were entitled to a municipal property tax exemption under General Statutes § 12-81 (7) because the subject property was not "housing subsidized, in whole or in part, by . . . state . . . government" and qualified as "temporary housing" under the statute?"

As this is a court-initiated request, an application for permission to file as amicus curiae is not required. If you accept the Court's invitation, you must file the amicus brief limited to 10 pages on or before November 27, 2020, in compliance with Practice Book Section 67-7, including the disclosure required in the first footnote on the first page of text. No extensions of time or oral argument will be permitted for amicus curiae, and responsive briefs by the parties will not be allowed.
