THE SUPREME COURT IS SOLICITING AMICUS CURIAE BRIEFS IN:

Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities v. Edge Fitness, LLC Et Al
SC 20538

This appeal was filed with the Appellate Court on August 10, 2020, and was transferred to the Supreme Court on December 1, 2020. The Court invites amici curiae to file briefs that address the following question:

"In this administrative appeal, did the trial court and the Commission on Human Rights & Opportunities hearing officer properly determine that the provision of women only workout areas by the defendant gyms did not violate General Statutes § 46a-64 (a) and its prohibition against sex discrimination in public accommodations?"

As this is a court-initiated request, an application for permission to file as amicus curiae is not required. If you accept the Court's invitation, you must file the amicus brief limited to 10 pages on or before April 1, 2021, in compliance with Practice Book Section 67-7, including the disclosure required in the first footnote on the first page of text. No extensions of time or oral argument will be permitted for amicus curiae, and responsive briefs by the parties will not be allowed.
