
The “officially released” date that appears near the beginning of each opinion is the date the opinion will be published in the Connecticut Law Journal or the date it was released as a slip opinion. The operative date for the beginning of all time periods for filing postopinion motions and petitions for certification is the “officially released” date appearing in the opinion. In no event will any such motions be accepted before the “officially released” date.

All opinions are subject to modification and technical correction prior to official publication in the Connecticut Reports and Connecticut Appellate Reports. In the event of discrepancies between the electronic version of an opinion and the print version appearing in the Connecticut Law Journal and subsequently in the Connecticut Reports or Connecticut Appellate Reports, the latest print version is to be considered authoritative.

FREDERICK GUNN v. COMMISSIONER OF CORRECTION
(AC 23763)

Dranginis, Flynn and Bishop, Js.

Submitted on briefs January 23—officially released February 10, 2004

Petitioner's appeal from the Superior Court in the judicial district of New Haven, Hon. William L. Hadden, Jr., judge trial referee.

PER CURIAM. The trial court denied the defendant's petition for habeas corpus and denied the petitioner's request for certification to appeal from the trial court's decision. After a careful review of the record and briefs, we conclude that the petitioner has not demonstrated that the issues are debatable among jurists of reason, or that a court could resolve the issues in a different manner, or that the questions are adequate to deserve encouragement to proceed further. See Simms v. Warden, 230 Conn. 608, 612, 646 A.2d 126 (1994).

The appeal is dismissed.
