Notice Regarding Complex Litigation Docket
Superior Court, Civil Division

Effective October 1, 2009, the procedures established by the Office of the Chief Court Administrator for the Complex Litigation Docket are modified as follows:

- The period of time within which the parties shall submit an Objection to Transfer to the Complex Litigation Docket is changed to 15 calendar days after the filing of the Application for Case Referral - Complex Litigation Docket (CLD) form, JD-CV-39.
- Any objection to the transfer of a case to the Complex Litigation Docket must be filed within 15 calendar days after the filing of the application. Attorneys not excluded from efilings must select "Objection to Transfer to Complex Litigation" when naming the objection in efilings. Attorneys excluded from efilings and self-represented parties must file the objection with the Clerk in the judicial district in which the case is pending and must title it "Objection to Transfer to the Complex Litigation Docket."

A case will be considered for the Complex Litigation Docket if a judge, or any party, at any time in the proceedings, requests that the matter be designated as a complex litigation case. Parties requesting that a case be placed on the Complex Litigation Docket should file an Application for Case Referral - Complex Litigation Docket (CLD) form, JD-CV-39.

Pursuant to Section 52-259 of the Connecticut General Statutes, there is a $335.00 fee for each case requested. The application form is available in every Judicial District Clerk's Office or on the Judicial Branch website at <http://www.jud2.ct.gov/webforms/forms/cv039.pdf>.

The Chief Administrative Judge of the Civil Division has discretion to schedule a hearing to consider whether referral to the Complex Litigation Docket is appropriate.

Complex Litigation Dockets are available in three court locations: Hartford, Stamford, and Waterbury. Additional information and a document entitled Facts About the Connecticut Judicial Branch Complex Litigation Docket are available on the Judicial Branch website at www.jud.ct.gov.
