

Superior Court Family Support Magistrate Division Standing Order - Regarding Matters in which the Attorney General is Counsel for the State of Connecticut in Video Conference Docket.

In all video conference proceedings for matters in which the Attorney General has entered an appearance on behalf of the state of Connecticut, where a motion to modify support pursuant to section 46b-215e of the Connecticut General Statutes brought by or on behalf of an incarcerated or institutionalized obligor is pending, the Assistant Attorney General need not physically appear and may file a written claim of objection provided it has been filed in advance of the hearing on the motion.

The Honorable Michael A. Albis
Chief Administrative Judge
Family Division
