Instructions to applicant

1. Before you can ask the court to terminate (end) the order, you must wait 180 days from:
 - The date the court first continued your Risk Protection Order; or
 - The date that the court denied your last petition to end your Risk Protection Order
2. Complete the Petition section and file it with the clerk of court in the GA where the first Risk Protection Order hearing was held.

Instructions to Clerk

1. Upon receipt of a Petition, submit it to a Judge for entry of the order requiring the law enforcement agency to investigate.
2. Schedule a hearing on the 28th day following the filing of the petition and provide the petitioner with a copy of the order with the hearing date.
3. Forward the Petition and Order of the Court to Justice Support, the State's Attorney's Office, and the law enforcement agency where the petitioner resides.
4. If the law enforcement agency finds, after investigation, no probable cause to believe the petition poses a risk, submit the Law Enforcement Agency Notice to the Court to a Judge for the order to cancel the hearing and terminate the Risk Protection Order and return any seized property to the petitioner.

Petition to Terminate Risk Protection Order

I, the petitioner listed above, believe that I am no longer at risk of causing immediate personal injury to myself or another person. So, I ask the court to terminate (end) the Risk Protection Order that the court continued or denied my last petition to end on: (date) _____

I also ask the court to order the state to return any firearms, deadly weapons, or ammunition that the police seized in connection with this Risk Protection Order to me.

Order of the Court

The court orders the law enforcement agency where the petitioner resides to investigate and determine, not later than 14 days after: _____ (the date this petition was filed), whether there is probable cause to believe that the petitioner poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or another person. The court further orders the law enforcement agency to return the Notice section below upon completion of the investigation.

Unless the investigation reveals that there is no probable cause to believe the petitioner poses a risk of imminent personal injury to themselves or another person, the court shall hold a hearing on this petition on:

Law Enforcement Agency Notice to the Court

GA number	Address of court	Docket number
Name of petitioner	Address of petitioner	Phone number of petitioner

Under the authority of the attached order, I, the officer signing below, conducted an investigation to determine whether the petitioner listed above poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or another person.

After my investigation, I have determined that there: (Select one)

- Is probable cause to believe that the person listed above poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or another person.
- Is no probable cause to believe that the person listed above poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or another person.

Order of the Court (if law enforcement agency found no probable cause)

After receiving notice that the law enforcement agency found, after an investigation, that there is no probable cause to believe that the petitioner poses a risk of imminent personal injury to himself, herself, or another person, the court Cancels the hearing and terminates the Risk Protection Order . The court further orders that any firearms, deadly weapons, or ammunition seized pursuant to a Search and Seizure Warrant in connection with the Risk Protection Order be returned to the respondent as soon as is practicable, provided that the respondent is otherwise legally able to possess these items. If the respondent does not claim the firearms, deadly weapons, or ammunition within 6 months, the court orders the seized property to be turned over to the Commissioner of Emergency Services and Public Protection for appropriate use or destruction. This order does not overrule, replace, or supersede any determination by the Commissioner of Emergency Services and Public Protection as to whether the respondent is eligible to possess the seized property.
