Note: If you are filing a joint petition for nonadversarial divorce, an application for custody, or an application or petition for visitation, do not use this form.

For custody applications and visitation applications or petitions, the hearing date assigned to your application or petition will also be your Case Management Date. Nonadversarial divorces do not have a Case Management Date assigned.

Instructions

To select a Case Management Date: If you are filing a divorce (dissolution of marriage), dissolution of civil union (except for nonadversarial actions filed under Section 46b-44a of the Connecticut General Statutes), legal separation or annulment, select the Case Management Date from the chart below based on the return date on your Summons, Family Actions (form JD-FM-3) and the court location of your case.

The Case Management Date must be stated in the Summons, Family Actions (form JD-FM-3) and the Notice of Automatic Court Orders (form JD-FM-158).

You must also state the Return Date plus 30 days on both the Summons, Family Actions (form JD-FM-3) and the Notice of Automatic Court Orders (form JD-FM-158).

You must file a Case Management Agreement (form JD-FM-163) with the court on or before the Case Management Date, or the plaintiff/applicant/petitioner and defendant/respondent and their attorneys must report to the court on the Case Management Date. If there is a parenting dispute (custody and/or visitation), you must appear on your case management date, even if you file a Case Management Agreement (form JD-FM-163).
