Order of the Court

After reviewing the attached Application and the accompanying Affidavit, the court finds that: (Select one)

- There is not a good faith belief that the child allegedly posing a risk listed in this application poses a risk of imminent personal injury to another person and currently possesses a firearm or a deadly weapon and denies this application;
- There is a good faith belief that the child allegedly posing a risk listed in this application poses a risk of imminent personal injury to another person, and currently possesses a firearm or a deadly weapon and grants this application. The court further orders the law enforcement agency for the town in which the child resides to immediately conduct a Risk Warrant Investigation;
- The applicant is not a family or household member or medical professional eligible to apply for a Risk Warrant Investigation and denies this application.

If the law enforcement agency determines that there is probable cause to believe the child poses a risk of imminent personal injury to another person and currently possesses a firearm or a deadly weapon, the court further orders the law enforcement agency to seek a Risk Warrant and to complete and return to the court the Notice section below within 24 hours, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, after receiving this order.

If the law enforcement agency determines, after the Risk Warrant Investigation, that there is no probable cause to believe that the child poses a risk of imminent personal injury to another person and currently possesses a firearm or a deadly weapon, the court orders the law enforcement agency to complete and return to the court the Notice section below and notify the applicant of such determination within 48 hours, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, after receiving this order.
