

ORDER TO DETAIN — PROBABLE CAUSE
DETERMINATION REQUEST

JD-JM-190 Rev. 7-18
C.G.S. § 46b-133; P.A. 18-31

STATE OF CONNECTICUT
SUPERIOR COURT JUVENILE MATTERS
www.jud.ct.gov

Instructions to Officer

1. Bring to a Judge prior to bringing any child to a Juvenile Detention Center regardless of the seriousness of the alleged delinquency charge. An Order to Detain is not required if there already exists an Order to Take Into Custody Delinquency (JD-JM-32A), Juvenile Arrest Warrant Application (JD-JM-176), or an Interstate Compact for Juveniles Take Into Custody Application and Order Delinquent Child (JD-JM-192) authorizing detention of the child.
2. Complete the introductory language in the Finding by identifying the documents submitted in support of the Request.
3. The original or a copy of the completed request should be brought to the Juvenile Detention Center with the child being admitted.

Instructions to Judge

1. Verify the accuracy of the description and dates of the documents listed in the Finding.
2. Sign the Finding. Return all copies of the Finding and of any documents submitted in support of the Request to the officer.
3. If an Order to Detain is not warranted but the child is in need of immediate temporary care, the Judge should advise the police to call the DCF Careline at (860) 550-6550.

Finding

Upon review of the following document(s) identified as _____ and dated, _____ in affidavit form as submitted, I find that:

- Probable cause exists to believe that a delinquent act has been committed by the child, and there is no appropriate less restrictive alternative available, and the circumstance(s) indicated below warrant the detention of the child at this time: (at least one must be checked)
  - A. There is probable cause to believe that the level of risk the child poses to public safety if released to the community prior to the court hearing or disposition cannot be managed in a less restrictive setting.
  - B. There is a need to hold the child to ensure the child's appearance before the court or compliance with court process, as demonstrated by the child's previous failure to respond to the court process.
  - C. There is a need to hold the child for another jurisdiction.
- Probable cause exists to believe the child has absconded, escaped, or run away from a residential facility in which such child has been placed by court order.
- Probable cause exists to believe that the child has committed a delinquent act but detention is not warranted at this time.
- There is no probable cause.

Order

- Effective immediately, the child shall be transported by the police and detained in the Juvenile Detention Center and held until further review.
  - Said child is ordered not be released by the Juvenile Detention Superintendent or designee.
- The child is to be released from custody.
