Last mortgagee of record (as to mortgage being foreclosed)

This is to certify that, at a session of the Superior Court, within and for the Judicial District listed above, the court entered a judgment of strict foreclosure on the property in this case, which is described in more detail below, under the authority of Section 49-17 of the Connecticut General Statutes. The court found that the plaintiff was a person who was entitled to receive the money secured by the mortgage being foreclosed, but who never received the legal title to the mortgaged property, and that the defendant owed the amount listed above as the amount of debt. The time limited for redemption of the property has expired, and no interested party has redeemed the property.

Therefore, as stated in the judgment of the court, title to the property has vested in:
