RIGHT TO COUNSEL AND TO REMAIN SILENT: If you want an attorney to represent you but are unable to pay for one, upon proof of your inability to pay, the court will ensure that an attorney is provided for you by the Chief Public Defender. A request for an attorney should be made immediately at the court office where your hearing is to be held. Any child shall have the right to remain silent at any stage of the proceedings. A parent or guardian may elect or refuse to testify for or against a child who is the subject of a family with service needs proceeding. If a petition is filed alleging the child is neglected, uncared for or abused dependent, the parent or guardian has the right to remain silent at any stage of the proceedings and cannot be forced to testify if the testimony might tend to incriminate in any criminal proceeding or to establish the validity of the facts alleged in the petition.
